

Wood Window Terminology

- Frame: The frame is the outer shell of the window, it is measured all over the frame size?
- Casement: A hinged sash that swings, casements can be side or top hung
- Transom: Any horizontal bar that splits the window
- Mullion: Any vertical bar that splits the window
- Jambs: The vertical portion of the frame which bear the weight of the casements
- Bead: Small timber section used to secure the glass in place
- Extendend Cill: An extended cill is a bevelled profile projecting from the base of the frame.